Residential on 10.32 Acres

SPARKS GLENCOE, Sparks Glencoe, MD

Incredible commercial or residential opportunity on York Rd in Sparks! So many possibilities with these incredible historical properties on over 10 acres just off York Road. This estate includes five updated buildings dating back to 1822, totaling 9 bedrooms and 9 bathrooms. The main house features a commercial-grade kitchen, parlor with fireplace, morning room, and a large gathering room with two-story ceilings and atrium doors leading to a stone patio. Three newly built guest suites with private bathrooms are attached to the main residence. Additional structures include the Iron House (formerly a blacksmith shop), the original tenant house along York Road (once home to John Wilkes Booth), a historic one-room schoolhouse, and a converted stable house. These buildings offer multiple options for short-term rental, event use, or hospitality conversion. The property includes paved parking for 12+ vehicles and a 1.5-acre buildable parcel. Surrounded by conservation land with a stream and three spring houses. Ideal for use as a bed and breakfast, boutique inn, event venue, or other commercial or residential use. Zoned for flexible use—buyer to verify. Shown by appointment only.

Built in 1822
